Now in its fourth edition, the Reading Teacher's Book of Lists has enjoyed huge word-of-mouth success. Teachers hear of it from other teachers or at workshops and wonder how they managed without it. This newly revised and updated version places at your fingertips over 190 of the most used and useful lists to help you develop instructional materials and plan lessons for elementary as well as secondary students. For quick access, the lists are organized into 15 sections from phonics, subject words, and vocabulary to literature comprehension and abbreviations, symbols, and signs. Each section brims with examples, key words, teaching ideas, and activities that you can use as is or easily adapt to meet your students' particular needs. You'll find over 40 new lists including vowel sounds, reading math, multiple intelligences, and reading and comprehension strategies. Other lists have been expanded and updated, including favorites such as story starters, prefixes, and suffixes, and common word idioms. Teachers will enjoy the all-new sections on the Internet and spelling. The large 8 1/4 x 11 spiral-bound format for easy photocopying has no limit to the uses for these lists, from creating games to making up test questions. Whatever grade you teach, there are lists that will inspire your lessons and your students.

Active Skills for Reading is an exciting five-level reading series that develops learners' reading comprehension and vocabulary skills. Written by reading specialist Neil J. Anderson, the new edition of this best-selling series uses an active approach to help learners become more confident, independent, and active readers.

Making Connections, second edition, teaches an extensive range of reading skills and strategies to prepare students for the challenges of reading college textbooks.
